

One Day Three Island Cruise

Athens One Day Cruise From Piraeus Port To Hydra, Poros & Aegina

One of the Three Island cruise ships

There will be time ashore on all three islands, perhaps an hour and a half on Hydra, an hour on Poros and two hours on Aegina. The order in which the islands are visited sometimes varies.

Whilst travelling between islands, at no extra cost you will enjoy lunch as well as some live Greek music, and dancing. Multi-lingual guides will help you to make the most of your day.

Once the cruise starts they will probably offer you optional tours (at extra cost) from Aegina port to places like the Temple of Aphaia and the St Nektarios monastery, or perhaps to a nice beach for swimming.

Poros Island

Island of Hydra

Aegina island

The Temple of Aphaia on Aegina island

The Temple of Aphaia is the best preserved temple in Greece and is one of the 3 temples forming the famous "Sacred Triangle" of Greek antiquity, the other two being the Parthenon in Athens and the Temple of Poseidon at Sounio. Built on top of a wooded hill, it offers magnificent views over the island, the Saronic Gulf, Piraeus and Salamina Island.

St Nektarios church and monastery on Aegina island

Rather than taking the organised tour you could get your own taxi from immediately outside the port. Recent guests told us that they negotiated a cost of 30 Euros for a taxi to take them to the temple, to wait whilst they explored, and to get them back to the town.

If you prefer to simply relax you can stay in Aegina Town and enjoy a walk or horse-and-carriage ride around the town, or spend some time in one of the harbor's waterfront coffee shops.